RE: Holiday Gifts

At this time of the year, it is difficult to deal with those who, with good intentions, try to give gifts or gratuities to judges and court staff. The provisions of Canon 5, Section C (4), prohibit judges and their family members from receiving gifts, except in certain limited circumstances. Prudence dictates that judges should require court staff under their direction to observe the same high standards to avoid any appearance that the official actions, decisions, or judgments of any court employee could be influenced by gifts. See Canon 3, Section B (2). While the spirit motivating potential gifts to judges and court staff is appreciated, gifts are not appropriate.
